DL22 naturally incomplete stratum: the same completion is compared across scales

A Cases with at least one full-order difference in either profile

B Completions where the between-profile disagreement indicator changes

Units differ between panels. Counts carry no probability model and do not establish real-DCG invariance.

Case-level existence verdicts were unchanged at all three scales for both endpoints.